Upon the Road. Perhaps one of the best known puns is that put into the mouth of John Gilpin by Cowper. It will be remembered that, according to the poem, John Gilpin borrowed a horse from his friend to ride to Edmonton to celebrate his wedding day, but the horse had other plans and took the jovial Gilpin to the house of his friend. who, on seeing his ruffled condition, asked him why he had come. I came because your horse would come, And if I well forbode My hat and wig will soon be here-They are upon the road.
